CAMBRIDGE:

Printed under Dom. 1666.

There will be Four Eclipses of the two great Luminaries, two of the Sun, and two of the Moon.

The first of the Moon on the sixth of the fourth Month afternoon, not visible to us by reason the Sun is several degrees high in the West, and the Moon as much under the East. But will be visible in the more eastern parts of the World,
Indiana, Tartaria, Egypt and Arabia.

The second will be of the Sun, on the 22. of the fourth Month, Inconspicuous to us by reason the Sun will not be risen above our Horizon; But very plain to be seen in England, Italy and Rome, &c.

The third is of the Moon 1. of the tenth Month, not visible by reason of the Southern Latitude of the Moon 3. to be seen in both Fava's, Bengals, &c.

The fourth is of the Sun, the 15th. of the tenth Month,
to be seen only in the southern parts of the Earth.

It hath been the zealous desire of many famous Men, that Heathenish Language might be laid aside, forgotten, and unknown'd; which if we may credit History, was begun by an Ordinance from Constantine the Great, Seconded by Q. Elizabeth, brought after by Mr. Brinsley, besides the many curious remotes is hath met with from many Learned Writers: and is still the desire of many worthy and eminent in England, as may be seen extant in the endeavours of Mr. Henry Jekyll in his Scripture Responder to persuade to which he adds many Scripture prohibitions, as Exod. 23. 17 enlarged by Dr. Willet, Tremelin, &c. Deut.
12. 3 vid. English Divines, Ainsworth on Gen. 26. 18 Diodoti on Psal. 16. 43 and further Argues (But how far it is valid leave to the judicious to determine) that it is a breach of the Initial Covenant, accounting it a piece of Diabolical service to name the Idolatrious Applications of one Kind to other. In imitation of which I have ventured to make a beginning, and shall leave the progress to the wife disposal of Divine Providence, and the direction of those that shall succeed.

The Mansions of the Temple is not here,
But moving in a Planetary Sphere
Rises and sets: the worlds colour'd pair
Can furnish or set forth a noble Saint,
Orthodoxy; and their Company
Them Honour, and their Diviner Prerogay.

The joyfull Church with Feasting and with mirth
Did Dedicate the Temple, and it's Birth
Did Celebrate. God did in's Glory rise,
The Ark his Resting-place to Solemnize:
Where erring Souls in th' narrow passage might,
Coming, enquire, and finde Directing Light

The eighth month contains xxxi days.

In its parts the Symphony of Perfection now
Was perfected; but we dare won't allow Dreier: those are not for heaven, whence
Salute hope to the more divine conscience
In Glory Triumphant then to Christ shall be One of Gods Angels Heaven, from not let see.

The hint: Month contains ~~xxx~~ dayes.

Mercies refrains constrains the Church to cry,
To Exalt, to Mourn, and pierce the Chrystal sky
With their loud-sounding prayers: & the sad tones
Of th' great distress, and sad effects of th' Year
Makes Nebuchadnezzar pray both night and morn.
That God would save the Church, hope forlorn.

The tenth Month contains xxxi days.

When Hellish Council sits, and is about
To raise an Host, by force of Arms to rout
The close Compacted City, and to fetch
The excision blow; then did the Lord forth stretch
His potent Arm of Providence, to advance
The Churches Welfare, and Deliverance.

The eleventh Month contains xxxi dayes.

When Out-cast Zion in it's heaps did ly
Among the Myrries; Mis'ries deay did cry
To depth of Mercy: And an Answer found
Wrapt up in th' Peaceful and delightful sound
Of gracious Promises, where Faith can see,
And say 'Tis done in the Divine Decree.

The twelfth Month contains xviii dayes.

When Hell conspires, conjures to turn th' Saints light
 To dissemble shade, their day to gloomy night;
 Then Gladness, Glory, and their Honour spring:
 Heaven's smiles all Happily Blessings bring.
 Such Thoughts big in Conception, oft do prove
 In Birth Abortive, and but slowly move
 To a Produce. Princes nature seems to be
 Of near a Kin to the grave Qualitie. Tandit deorsum.

The Worlds Eternity is an Impossibility.

Impious, Blasphemous, and detraitive from the excellency of the Divine Majesty, have been the bold assertions of men unacquainted with, and unguided by the Spirit or Truth of him who is Amen, the God of Truth. Among other their malepert and audacious attempts, they endeavour to dethrone the World with the Antient of Days, to extend a Minute to Eternity, and coequalize a point with him cujus centrum est ubique et circumferentia nullibi. Affirming some that the World was, others that the World could be from Eternity. Which blunts the many Scriptural demonstrations founded upon the uncreated of Truth it self, Reason presuming none so unreasonable as to maintain the former, presents the World with these Arguments to disprove the latter, drawn from these four Topics: 1. A parte creati. 2. A parte creaturae. 3. A Natura creationis. 4. A Natura Aeternitatis.

1. A parte creati, because God could not produce by creation, or an external act, a Being coeternal with himself; not so imply any impotency in the Omnipotent, but rather to express his Infinite perfection, whose perfect Nature admits of no jarring contradictions: nor hath he made impossibilities the object of his power. For that an efficient should extrinsically produce another entity contemporary, much more coeternal with it self, implies a contradiction.

2. A parte creaturae, though Reason nor Religion will not permit the least loss of detraction from the Almighty, who is Jeboab, giving Being to all things, to assert that his Infinite power is not eternal and unchangeable, which is Deum potens, eternum et immutabile: Yet 'tis true and certain, the Creature, or rather Norbing, which was its first Principle, could not admit a possibility of Being from Eternity; (In esse subiectum non objectum) for the Divine Idea (If I may speak in the dialect of some learned and pious) being God contemplating himself as imitable in the creatures fabrick, or as it was capable to receive the impression of the Image or Vestigium of those divine perfections which were in himself; it follows that whatever perfection was eminently in God, and the creature was Analogically capable of, was according to divine wisdom expressed, for otherwise the Idea or Exemplar would not have been consentaneous to the ἰδέα τοῦ θεοῦ, But Eternity not being communicable to any created Being, implies that it is no communicable property, so that though we grant Potencia, Conveniens in Deo, to be a creator from eternity, yet the Incommunicability of Eternity to the subject, infers an impossibility of its eternal existence.

For then creation would not be distinguished from eternal conservation, a creature might be said to exist as long as it is preserved, in the same manner. Nam creationem non est conservatio sed conservatio presupponit creationem.

For Eternity admits no parenthesis, and the notion of intervallic existence is possible. So that to make the world eternal is to assert it coessential with eternity, so that the creature Creator, to confound the Truth in error, might as well give the effect one of the incommunicable properties of His Cause.

A Short Discourse about 66.

I see, Reader, mine not a Prophetick strain,
Nor doubtful guesses, or conjectures here:
Written in Conning love a judicious brain;
Of all the Buzzes will to Lash appear.
Mistake me not in what I undertake.
And of my thoughts a short account I'll make.
I will not treat of Rising of the Dead,
Nor yet the Riders downfal in this season;
The old Lotinos, and such like the rest,
If slain, would sound to Colledges like Treason:
Nor will I speak of Falls of Kings and States;
What Prodigies do speak, no power abates.
Nor yet Prophetick Millenarie Years,
The Thousand Year this time expected:
Nor yet the Dragon chained up appears,
Nor Monks rising yet as though effected.
But I shall briefly something else relate,
That will fall out by Sixty six date.
What Prodigy's foretold, the false and true,
What Prophecies that were of Hells invention:
What Dreams and Visions, were they old or new,
Of Sixty six foretold, and their intention:
Of the false Glosses on this holy Writ,
Will much appear to him that hath his Wit.
For such as have been cry'd up Antiquity,
In darkness shall be bury'd as Mistakes,
Where here's Wisdom, and Divinity,
Which at which each Popeling quakes,
It once he knows it, as a Demonstration,
With Arguments and power beyond Ev. sion.
Now Hopes and hopes of many disappointed,
The seats and tears of many wip'd away:
Now Reveries and Terrours grow strong, and Loins disjointed;
The suffering Saints not always made a prey.
The Lord a Furnace is preparing ready
To Capt the Heavens and Earth anew, and speedy.
